An aura is basically an energy field, its our life force. It describes a certain kind of presence that surrounds or enhances a person, place or thing. The colours of the Aura are a good indicator of the personality, health & spirituality. The Aura has many colours, and flows with you, changing colour with your moods, feelings and spiritual condition.

The Aura Video System provides visual proof of the colourful splendour and vastness of your energy field. It can reveal hidden potentials and much much more.

It gives the user an accurate visual representation of a clients aura. This is mainly an educational tool that reveals measured biofeedback data via graphs, meters and aura-charka images to the client. By placing your hand on the 'BIOSENSOR' it then measures the biofeedback data from your aura and chakras.

The aura or energy field basically reflects the connection between body, mind and spirit. Our thoughts, emotions and beliefs are mirrored or reflected in the aura, and therefore the aura and charkas can be used to determine the underlying issues related to physical symptoms. Your aura and charkas reflect emotional-energetic wellness and therefore can be used as a 'true holistic indicator' of body-mind-spirit wellness.

Health practitioners and educators in the USA have embraced this technology and used it over the last 5 years with tremendous success, mainly because of its many applications. It is also an excellent tool for determining the overall Mind-Body-Spirit of a client.

Your Aura/Chakra Photo and Report gives you a colourful, visual and graphical representation of your own personal biofeedback data.

"I was very depressed and did not realise that simply through working with movement and visualisation techniques I could find my power again. I am stronger then ever and eternally grateful for what the AURA machine and the Pleasure
Professor Team showed me. "Jack Swan"
